

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

EXPLANATIONS,

To find any book or story in this catalogue, look either under the name of the author or for the first word of the title, except such word be A, An or The, in which case look for the second word. Books are entered under the real name of the author when that is known, under the pseudonym, or assumed name, when it is not; and where only the initials of an author are known, the last initial is put first. Compound surnames are entered under the first part of the name. Names or initials enclosed in parentheses are such as are usually not retained. The names in parentheses printed in italics, and not preceded by the word "formerly," are the pseudonyms of the authors whose real names they follow:

For example: Dickens, Charles (John Hougham). (Boz).

Where the words In or With occur in connection with a title, they indicate a shorter story published or bound with others, except in some instances where the reference is to the collected works of an author.

In the case of translations the original title is usually printed in parentheses:

For example: Dumas, A. (D.) CONSCRIPT, The: an historical novel of the days of the first Napoleon. (Tr. of Conscience l'innocent).

Books of recent purchase, which are labeled "Seven-Day Book," shall not be retained more than one week, and can not be renewed.

Encyclopædias, dictionaries, and other works of reference, rare and illustrated books, and such works as, for any reason, are restricted from circulation by the Board of Managers, can be consulted only in the building.

All injuries to books beyond reasonable wear, and all losses, shall promptly be made good to the satisfaction of the Librarian.

A fine of three cents a day shall be paid on each volume which is not returned according to the provisions of the preceding rules. To this fine shall be added the expense of collection and of serving notice.

If any book be not returned within one month after serving a notice, the Librarian shall proceed to collect, through the City Solicitor, the value of the book, with accrued fines and other charges to the date of payment.

Any person abusing the privileges of the Library, or violating these rules, shall be temporarily suspended from its privileges; and the case shall be reported to the Board of Managers for such action as the Board may deem proper.

The Library and Reading Rooms shall be open from 8 o'clock A. M. to 10 P. M. on all secular days, and on Sundays, for reference only, between the same hours; Provided, that said rooms may be closed on holidays at the discretion of the Board of Managers.

SPECIAL DIRECTIONS.

1. In asking for a book, whether in the Delivery Room or in the Reading Rooms, write the number or title distinctly on the order-slip furnished for that purpose, and listen for the calling of your name when the order returns.

2. The numbers at the end of each title in the catalogues indicate the place of the books in the Library—those in bold-faced type, the alcove, and the others, the shelf-numbers. Both numbers must be written on the order-slip.

3. All complaints should be made in the first instance to the Librarian, either in person or by letter, giving the name and residence of the person aggrieved.

4. The Librarian is at all times ready to assist persons in the investigation of special subjects, by indicating the sources of information so far as the Library contains them.

5. Books not in the Library will be purchased on application to the Librarian, unless there be a special reason against it.
